B. Understanding the CTC

- CTC means Cost to Company. It is the total annual amount budgeted by the company for your employment, including salary paid to you and employer-side statutory/benefit costs incurred on your behalf.
- Gross Salary is the cash salary before employee-side deductions. Net salary or take-home salary will be lower after deductions such as TDS/income tax, employee PF contribution if applicable, professional tax, ESI if applicable, salary advances, or other lawful deductions.
- Employer PF, gratuity provision, insurance, and welfare benefits are part of CTC because they are costs borne by the company. Some of these amounts may not be paid as monthly cash salary and will be handled as per applicable law and company policy.
- The monthly figures are shown for clarity. Payroll rounding, statutory ceiling rules, tax declarations, attendance, unpaid leave, and changes in law may affect the actual monthly payout.

☐ Aadhaar Card copy and PAN Card copy	☐ Recent passport-size photographs
☐ Educational certificates and marksheets	☐ Updated resume
